WILLIAM H. "Billy" SOUTHWORTH, Manager

This marks Southworth's fourth year at the helm of the Braves. Billy was with the Tribe as an outfielder from 1921 through 1923. He was signed to manage the Braves November 6, 1945. Born at Harvard, Nebraska on March 9, 1893, he is married, has a daughter, Carole, aged thirteen and lives in Sunbury, Ohio. Since Billy came to the Braves as manager his teams have finished 4th in 1946, 3rd in 1947 and 1st in 1948.

JOHN WALTER COONEY, Coach

Johnny is starting his fourth year as a coach on the same club with which he started his baseball career in 1920. He was with the Braves in 1921 through 1930, and 1938 through 1942. He is married, has one son, John, and lives in Sarasota, Florida.

JAMES BROWN, Coach

Jimmy is the newest addition to the Braves coaching staff. He played under Billy Southworth with the Cardinals, later played at Pittsburgh. He managed Indianapolis of the American Association in 1947 and New Orleans of the Southern Association in 1948. He is highly regarded by baseball men in general, and particularly by Burt Shotton. He is married, has one child and makes his home in Washington, N. C.

ROBERT WILLIAM KEELY, Coach

When Billy Southworth came to the Braves, likable Bob Keely came along with him to serve in a capacity similar to that which he occupied under Billy with the St. Louis Cardinals, that of coach and bull pen catcher. Bob has been in baseball since 1937. A bachelor, he calls St. Louis, Missouri his home.
